

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1901

P23
.901
.2

P23

.901

.2

REGULATIONS.

I. UNIVERSITY BILLS, BOARD AND LODGING	3
II. ALLOTMENT AND RENTAL OF ROOMS	4
III. REGISTRATION AND CHOICE OF ELECTIVES	10
IV. ATTENDANCE	11
V. CONDITIONS AND ABSENCE FROM EXAMINATIONS . . .	13
VI. USE OF LIBRARY	15
VII. SECRET SOCIETIES	16
VIII. HAZING	16
IX. CONDUCT.—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS	17
X. DISCIPLINE AND PENALTIES	19

NOTE.—The Regulations respecting Admission are to be found in the annual catalogue, and copies may also be had in a separate pamphlet. Copies of II, IV, and V may be had separately at the Registrar's office.

December, 1901.

P 23
1901
12

1905 197347

YTI293VINU

Y9A98LL

L.N. NOTEDM99

I. UNIVERSITY BILLS, BOARD AND LODGING.

1. All University expenses, including board, must be paid in advance to the Treasurer of the University.

2. Students are required to call at the Treasurer's office in the course of the first ten days of each session and to give information as to their place of boarding, etc., so that their bills can be made out. All bills must be paid within the first four weeks of the session. Failure to comply with this rule shall deprive the student of the privileges of the University until payment is made, unless excused by special vote of the Faculty.

3. When a student enters the University before the middle of a session, he shall pay in full the usual charges for that session, with the exception of the charges for board; if he enter after the middle of a session, he shall pay one-half. For board he shall pay in proportion to the time.

4. When a student leaves the University, whether voluntarily or by dismission, before the middle of any session, one-half of the charges for tuition and public rooms for that session shall be refunded. But in the case of temporary absence and subsequent return, although the absence be for more than half a session, no such rebate shall be granted.

5. When a student is dismissed from the University for any cause, the advance deposit for board, fuel, and gas, beyond the time of his dismission, shall be refunded to his parent or guardian.

6. When at the end of the first term the amount of the advance deposit proves to be in excess of the sum required to defray the board or room bills of any student, the excess shall be credited on his bill for the next session. At the end of the Academic year the amounts overpaid by the members of the graduating class for board, room-rent, fuel, or gas shall be refunded by the Treasurer to the student's parent or guardian. The parent or guardian, of every undergraduate will be advised of the amount of excess to the credit of his son or ward, and such amount will be carried over to his credit on the bill of the first term of the following year. In case of withdrawal or dismissal from the University of any undergraduate, at the end of the college year such excess will be refunded by the Treasurer to the parent or guardian, when informed by the Clerk of the Faculty that such undergraduate has been withdrawn or dismissed from the University.

7. Students may take their meals at any house approved by the Curator of Grounds and Buildings. Any student wishing to change his place of boarding must obtain permission from the Treasurer on or before the date of the proposed change. Penalty for disregard of this rule is a fine of five dollars.

N. B.—The University week begins on Wednesday.

8. Students are required, as far as practicable, to lodge in the University buildings. The rules governing allotment and rental of rooms follow. Places of lodging in the town must have the approval of the Curator. Change of lodging without notice previously given and permission obtained, subjects a student to a fine of ten dollars, and such further penalty as the Faculty may deem necessary.

II. ALLOTMENT AND RENTAL OF ROOMS.

1. Rooms shall be assigned for occupation during the following academic year between the 15th of May and the 1st of June of each year.

2. This assignment shall embrace :

a. All rooms occupied by students whose connection with the University will terminate at the end of the academic year.

b. The rooms of all Seniors, whether with room-mate or not, (unless the room may be retained by a graduate or for a brother, as elsewhere provided in the rules.)

c. All rooms for which the lease has not been properly renewed.

3. An allotment may also take place at the close of the first term of each academic year for the purpose of assigning such rooms as may then fall vacant.

4 a. The assignment of rooms shall in all cases not herein specially excepted take place in such a manner that specific rooms shall be assigned by lot.

b. The rooms to be assigned shall be classified according to the amount of their rental in seven groups as follows :

(1) The first group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $18 to $36 inclusive.

(2) The second group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $40 to $66 inclusive.

(3) The third group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $70 to $100 inclusive.

(4) The fourth group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $105 to $140 inclusive.

(5.) The fifth group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $150 to $180 inclusive.

(6.) The sixth group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $200 to $240 inclusive.

(7.) The seventh group shall embrace rooms whose rental is from $250 to $300 inclusive.

c. The applicants for rooms shall be divided into corresponding groups, each applicant being required to inform the Treasurer in writing before the 10th of May or the 20th of January, as the case may be, both of his intention to enter the drawing and of the group in which he wishes to be placed.

Every applicant for a room shall agree beforehand, and shall be required, to take the room which may be assigned to him by lot in the group in which he has made application.

d. Each drawing shall begin with the first group and proceed from that group through the other groups successively in the order given above. Any applicant who does not obtain a room in the group to which he first asked to be assigned may be allowed to draw in any higher group.

e. If there be any rooms remaining unassigned after a drawing, such rooms may be assigned by subsequent allotment, at such time before the end of the year or of the term as the Treasurer may appoint; such supplementary allotment to be made under the same rules as the principal allotment, with this exception, that the rooms disposed of by means of it may be classified as above or not at the discretion of the Treasurer.

f (a). Priority in the drawing shall be determined by the length of time the applicants have been members of the University. The first drawing shall include the names of all applicants who have been members of the University for more than one year. A second drawing shall include the names of all applicants who have been members of the University for one year or less.

f (b). If the application for a double room shall be signed by students who have been members of the University different lengths of time, it shall be classified, and placed in the drawing in which the student who has been a member of the University the shortest length of time would be placed.

g. New students shall have choice of any rooms remaining vacant at the time of their entering upon residence in the order of their application after undergoing the entrance examinations for full standing, upon condition of immediately signing the lease required in all cases. [See rule 5 a.]

h. Double rooms shall be separately classified and allotted in accordance with the above regulations. Only such suites as consist of a study and two bedrooms shall be considered double rooms within the meaning of this clause. No double room shall be assigned to a single individual, nor shall it be within the privilege of any single individual to draw for a double room. Every application for a double room must give the names of two persons who intend to occupy the room together and who undertake to be jointly responsible for the rent of the same.

i. Whenever, for any reason, one of the occupants of a double room is permitted or obliged to cancel his room lease, the remaining occupant must vacate the room at the end of the current academic term, unless he agrees to pay the whole rent, or provide a room-mate who shall join him in signing a new lease for the remainder of the academic year.

5. a. The tenure and liability to those to whom rooms are assigned under these rules shall be the tenure and liabilities expressed in the following lease, which must be signed in the case of each room allotted by the student who is to occupy it and by his parent or guardian. This lease must be signed and delivered to the Treasurer in each case within ten days of the allotment, except in the case of new students, provided for under Rule 4 g.

This agreement, made the day of , 190 , between the Trustees of Princeton University and of , witnesseth that the said Trustees of Princeton University do hereby lease unto the said Room No. in the Entry of , to hold for the academic year of , paying therefor during the said term unto the said Trustees of Princeton University the yearly rent of $ in two equal payments, to be made, the one within the first four weeks of the first term of the academic year, the other within the first four weeks of the second term of the academic year.

And the said covenants to pay the said rent in the manner and at the times aforesaid and to deliver up the said premises to the said Trustees of Princeton University or its legal representative at the end of said term in as good condition as the same now are or may be put into by the said Trustees of Princeton University, reasonable use and wear and tear thereof, and fire and other casualty excepted. The said lessee also covenants that he will not do or suffer to be done any damage in the leased premises, and that, if any damage beyond reasonable wear and tear be done, he will cause the same to be made good as soon as possible at his own expense, employing for that purpose the proper University workmen, and paying the cost thereof at once to the University Treasurer, it being understood that the damage here meant includes the breakage of glass and locks, whether by accident or design. The said lessee further covenants that he will not sublet the same or any part thereof nor permit any other person or persons to occupy the same or any part thereof, nor make nor suffer to be made any alteration therein without the consent of the said Trustees of Princeton University for that purpose in writing first had and obtained. And the said lessee further covenants that the said Trustees of Princeton University through their authorized representatives may enter the said premises for the purpose of viewing or making improvements therein at any reasonable times in the day time, or at any other time for the legitimate purposes of University discipline. This lease is made on the express condition that it may be terminated by said Trustees through their representative.

b. Any occupant of a college room may retain his room until the end of his undergraduate or graduate course provided he annually notify the Treasurer of his intention of retaining it and sign a new lease before the 1st of May. Otherwise his room shall be considered vacant and shall be included in the next allotment. In case an occupant of a double room be left without a room-mate at the end of the academic year, he may renew his lease upon condition of naming another student of the University who will become joint lessee with him for the following year unless the room-mate who leaves is a Senior or a fourth year special. It shall also be the privilege of any occupant of a college room to renew his lease at the end of his own tenure in the name of his brother, when that brother is to enter the University immediately.

c. The right to occupy a room is not transferable and terminates with the expiration of the lease. Any attempt on the part of the occupant of a college room to sell or transfer, directly or indirectly, his right of occupancy shall be deemed a fraudulent transaction, and will be dealt with by the Faculty as a grave breach of University law.

d. The occupant of a college room shall deposit with the Treasurer the sum of 25 cents for each key to his room that may be furnished him by the University; and all amounts paid under this clause shall be refunded upon the return of the key or keys furnished.

6. Students vacating college rooms shall be allowed to store any furniture not disposed of in a room designated by the University authorities, under the charge of a salesman appointed by the University, where it may be offered for sale. Furniture remaining unsold at the end of four months after the date of storing shall be disposed of at public auction to the highest bidder.

7. No exchange of rooms shall be allowed unless formally sanctioned in writing by the Treasurer; and then only upon terms explicitly stated in a written application signed by both parties to the proposed exchange, and not in contravention of the spirit of these rules. Such applications shall be kept on file in the Treasurer's office.

The Committee on Grounds and Buildings shall engage a competent appraiser, not otherwise connected with the University, to determine the value of all furniture and contents for sale in a room to be vacated or transferred. His decision shall be final in every appraisal. Under the general direction of the Treasurer, it shall be the duty of the appraiser to estimate separately the value of each article so offered for sale and to deposit with the Treasurer a complete list for each room of the articles appraised, with their several values affixed. The owner shall not be permitted, under any pretext, to sell to his successor any article for more than the appraised valuation. If he does not wish to sell at so low a price, then he must remove his property from the room. If his successor does not wish to purchase at the appraised valuation, he may order that the property be removed from the room. All payments for the furniture or contents of a room vacated or transferred must be made through the Treasurer. But nothing in these rules shall be construed to create a liability on the part of the University for damaged or missing articles.

8. When rooms are vacated during a term the rent shall be paid until the end of the term. An occupant of a college room who expects to be absent on leave for a term may be released from the obligations of his lease, provided he notify the Treasurer before the beginning of the term during which he expects to be absent, and give up the room; but no abatement or drawback of room rent shall be allowed for any period less than a term, except in special cases, to be stated in writing, and by permission of the Treasurer.

9. The Faculty of the University is directed to suspend or expel every student who may be found guilty of breaking or evading these rules or injuring or interfering with the person or property of his successor in a room; or of aiding or abetting another in such transgression, evasion, injury or interference. The Faculty and all its officers are instructed to take the utmost pains, by ordinary or extra-ordinary means, to discover such offenders, and prevent such offenses.

The Faculty is further instructed to report, with the evidence discovered, the name of any graduate or outsider who may be guilty of such offenses to the Committee on Grounds and Buildings; and said committee is authorized and directed to procure legal counsel and, when the evidence seems to justify it, to take appropriate legal proceedings against any and every offender before a court of law.

The Registrar of the University is instructed, under the supervision of the last said committee, to have these regulations incorporated in a set of amended rules and printed in a pamphlet, and to send copies to all parents or guardians either of students now in the University, or of applicants for admission.

III. REGISTRATION AND CHOICE OF ELECTIVES.

1. At the beginning of the Academic year each undergraduate student shall report in person at the Registrar's Office, before 1 P. M. of the first Thursday of the term, and register

- a. his full name, home address, and Princeton address—
- b. his choice of electives for the term.

Entering students shall register when they matriculate.

2. After the Thanksgiving recess, the Christmas vacation, and the Spring recess, the student shall report in person at the Registrar's Office, before 5 P. M. of the day on which exercises are resumed, and register his name.

3. The choice of electives for the second term must be reported in writing to the Registrar, on or before the third Monday in January.

4. In every case of delay in registration three absences will be recorded against the student for each day that the registration is delayed. Serious cases shall be punished by postponement of the registration with corresponding increase in the absences recorded, by putting the student on probation, by suspension, or otherwise as the Faculty may determine. The penalty for delay in reporting the full list of electives for the term shall be the record of one absence each day for each elective not reported, until the list is complete; this delay to be reckoned from the registration at the beginning of the Academic year or from the third Monday in January. Serious cases shall be punished more severely as the Faculty may determine. If the student enter any elective class after exercises with that class have been held, he shall be reported by the instructor as absent from those exercises.

IV. ATTENDANCE.

ABSENCE FROM PRINCETON.

1. Students are not allowed to leave or be absent from the University during term time, except as provided in section IV below, without permission of the Faculty. Requests should ordinarily be presented to the Committee on Attendance, or in special cases, to the class officer or the Dean of the Faculty. Unauthorized absence subjects a student to the penalty provided in the Rules, and makes him liable to such further penalty as the Faculty may deem necessary.

COMMITTEE ON ATTENDANCE.

2. The Committee on Attendance has charge of all matters pertaining to attendance on chapel and class exercises. It meets every Wednesday noon in the Faculty room, University Offices.

DIVISIONS OF THE YEAR.

3. In the regulation of attendance, the academic year is divided into four quarters, ending at Thanksgiving Day, close of first term, Spring recess, and Commencement.

EXCUSES.

4. No excuse for absence will be received except in extraordinary cases. Excuses for such cases must always be offered in person to the Committee on Attendance, not later than the second meeting of the Committee after the return of the student to his academic exercises.

5. Students who absent themselves from town over Sunday and who desire that the absences from Chapel thus incurred shall be excused must file a statement in the Registrar's office on a form provided by the office, in the week immediately preceding or following the absence. Such excuses shall not be granted more than twice in any one quarter, and further absences thus incurred will be counted on the gratuity. No excuse will be granted unless application is made within a week of the absence. Students may however go home for Sunday, and absences so incurred will be excused on filing at the Registrar's office on a special form provided by the office, a request by parent or guardian that such absence be excused. Such excuses to be valid must be presented in the week preceding or following the absence.

6. Absences necessarily incurred by the University Musical Clubs in connection with a tour taken in vacation by permission of the Faculty, will be excused on recommendation of the Music Committee.

7. Absences necessarily incurred by the University Athletic Teams in connection with intercollegiate games will be excused on recommendation of the Committee on Out-door Sports.

ATTENDANCE ON CHAPEL EXERCISES.

8. Every undergraduate student is required to attend morning prayers in the chapel and the stated services on Sunday unless excused by the President or Faculty. If the student is irregular in his attendance notice will be sent to his parent or guardian. When his absences in any quarter exceed a certain number (18 for Seniors and Juniors, 14 for Sophomores, Freshmen and Specials) he becomes liable to discipline, which in ordinary cases shall be suspension, though other penalties may be imposed at the discretion of the Committee.

9. If, at the end of the first quarter in each term, the student's absences from the chapel are less than the limit above fixed, the difference, or 6 if the difference be greater than 6, will be added to the limit fixed for the second quarter in that term to determine the number which renders the student liable to discipline.

10. If the student's absences in any quarter exceed the limit and discipline is inflicted, any further irregularity in attendance renders him liable to further discipline at the discretion of the Committee; and a number of absences, not exceeding the number incurred in excess of the limit, may be charged against him at the beginning of the next quarter.

ATTENDANCE ON CLASS EXERCISES.

11. Every undergraduate student is required to attend the scheduled exercises of his class. When his absences in any quarter exceed a certain number (10 for Seniors and Juniors, 8 for Sophomores, Freshmen and Specials) he becomes liable to discipline, which in ordinary cases shall be the imposition of extra work, though other penalties may be imposed at the discretion of the Committee. After the first penalty has been imposed, any further irregularity in attendance in that quarter renders the student liable to further discipline at the discretion of the Committee.

12. If a student is irregular in his attendance on the exercises of any instructor, the instructor may impose extra work ; and, in case the absences exceed one-sixth of the exercises with that instructor, he may debar the student from the regular examination. A student thus debarred from examination shall be dealt with according to the regulations for conditioned students.

V. CONDITIONS AND ABSENCE FROM EXAMINATIONS.

1. Absence from any examination, regular or special, counts as a failure.

Excuses for such absences are to be rendered to the Committee on Examinations and Standing.

2. Conditions are incurred by failure to satisfy the requirements of any course,—including term work, examinations, and any extra work imposed by the instructor for irregularity of attendance ; also by exclusion from examination.

Exclusion Rule. A student who is absent from more than one-sixth of the exercises of any course may be excluded by the instructor from the examination in that course.

3. Dropping Rule. A student who is conditioned in half or more of his work for a term is dropped from his class without the privilege of re-examination,—and he must either withdraw from the University, or with permission of the Faculty enter the next lower class.

Previous conditions unremoved will be added to the total constituting failure under this rule, as provided in Rule 6 ;—likewise entrance conditions, as provided in Rule 9.

4. Re-examination. A student who has conditions amounting to less than half the work of a term is given one opportunity to remove them, without penalty,—first term conditions or deficiencies due to absence in the fifth week of the second term, second term conditions in the first week of the Academic year in September.

5. Second Opportunity. A student who fails to remove his conditions or deficiencies at the first opportunity is granted a second opportunity—on first term subjects in the first week of the Academic year in September, on second term subjects in the sixth week of the Academic year. In case of Seniors the second opportunity on first term conditions will be given in June. For these examinations the student must pay the fee of section 8, and he may be required by the instructor to employ a tutor and present a certificate of preparation.

6. Demotion. A student who fails to remove a condition at the second stated opportunity will be enrolled with the next lower class in the catalogue until all deficiencies are made up. No further opportunity for examination in the subject will be given until the regular examination period of the corresponding term in the following year. If the condition is not then removed, it will be added to the total constituting failure at that time; likewise to the total of any term thereafter as long as unremoved. Other opportunity for examination on such a condition will be given only at the September deficiency examinations.

7. Senior Finals. A Senior who fails to pass in not more than two subjects of the second term examination is allowed one re-examination, and, if successful, may be recommended to receive his degree with his class. Further opportunity to remove conditions is given only in the next Academic year.

8. Fee. For each examination upon a deficiency after the first opportunity and not at a regular term examination, the student is required to pay a fee of $5 into the University treasury, to be applied to the Library Fund.

9. Entrance Conditions. Opportunity for the removal of entrance conditions will be given in January in the first week after the holiday recess, and in the week following the Spring recess,—as well as at the regular entrance examinations in June and September.

Freshman entrance conditions remaining after the beginning of Sophomore year will be counted each as one hour toward dropping under Rule 3; and will also entail payment of the fee of section

8. In a later year, if unremoved, they will entail demotion, section 6.

10. Schedules of examination will be posted on the bulletin board in the University Offices usually a week in advance. Examinations on deficiency are held only at the periods specified above, and no deferred or special examination is allowed. When a student has two subjects scheduled for the same time, the earlier subject takes precedence; for examination in the other subject the student must arrange in advance through the Committee on Examinations and Standing.

11. Special Cases. In the application of these regulations, special cases, arising from illness or other causes, will be duly considered by the Faculty. Requests to be relieved from the operation of any of these regulations must be made in writing.

June 1901.

VI. USE OF LIBRARY.

The Library is open from 8 A. M. until 10 P. M. during term time, and from 9 A. M. until 1 P. M. in vacation.

Books may be drawn by all officers and students of the University and Theological Seminary, and by others having special permission. The number of books which may be taken is limited to three in the case of students, with the exception of Seniors, who may take five. Officers, Fellows, and Graduate students may take any reasonable number. Books may be kept by undergraduates for two weeks, by Fellows and Graduate students for four weeks, and by Officers for any reasonable time. All books may be renewed when due, unless wanted by some one else.

Fines are charged at the rate of two cents a day on all books kept over time. If an overdue book is wanted at the Library for any reason, it may be sent for, and a charge of ten cents for messenger made. Postal cards are sent to remind of books overdue only when the books are wanted by others. No books can be drawn, nor will any recommendation for a degree be made while there are unpaid fines.

VII. SECRET SOCIETIES.

1. All secret societies, except those publicly sanctioned by the authorities of the University, are strictly prohibited.

2. At his matriculation each student is required to sign the following pledge: "We, the undersigned, do individually for ourselves promise, without any mental reservation, that we will have no connection whatever with any secret society, nor be present at the meetings of any secret society of this or any other college, so long as we are members of Princeton University; it being understood that this promise has no reference to the American Whig and Cliosophic Societies. We also declare that we regard ourselves bound to keep this promise and on no account whatever to violate it."

3. The Faculty is required by a resolution of the Trustees "promptly to dismiss any student known to be a member of a prohibited secret society."

VIII. HAZING.

1. Acts or attempts at acts of a brutal character, or involving the restraint of the liberty of any student by one or more other students, or the invasion of his private rights, and all proceedings in the nature of intimidation or coercion, shall be included under the general designation of "hazing."

2. Offenses coming under the above designation shall be punished by dismissal from the University, or by suspension for a longer or shorter period at the discretion of the Faculty. In cases of dismission, no student so dismissed shall be allowed to return within one year. Flagrant offenses of this character may be punished by expulsion.

3. Any student who shall incite another to commit a breach of this regulation, or shall directly or indirectly encourage or procure the committal of an offense, or shall countenance by his continued presence or otherwise, any such offense, when committed, shall be dealt with by the Faculty according to the gravity of the offense.

NOTE.—In 1899 the students of the University in mass meeting passed resolutions looking to the abolition of hazing, and instituted a committee of students for the enforcement of the same.

This committee is empowered by the student body to summon and examine those accused of violating the terms of the resolutions, and, where guilt is established, to report the case with the evidence to the Faculty for action.

IX. CONDUCT. MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. No student shall bring, or cause to be brought into college, or keep in his room, any spirituous or fermented liquors; nor shall he frequent any place where intoxicating liquors are sold as a beverage.

2. The use of distilled or fermented drinks by the students at eating clubs and boarding houses, upon any occasion or pretext whatever, is prohibited. Students will not be permitted to board where this rule is violated.

3. Lying, profaneness, drunkenness, theft, uncleanness, gambling, or other improprieties, shall be punished according to the nature and gravity of the offense.

4. All practices inconsistent with the due observance of the Lord's Day are expressly prohibited.

5. If any student shall quarrel with, insult, or abuse a fellow student, or any person whatever, he shall be punished as the Faculty in view of all the circumstances may determine.

6. It is required of all students to exhibit respectful deportment to the officers of the University; and if any student shall disobey any of the lawful commands of his teachers, or shall, either in speech or action, manifest disrespect towards any of them, he shall be required to make due acknowledgment, and shall be further dealt with as the Faculty may judge proper.

7. If any student shall refuse to appear personally before any officer of the University, when required so to do, he shall be punished for contempt of authority.

8. Any student who may be required so to do, shall open the door of his room to any officer of the University; and if he refuse, the officer may break it open, and the expense of repairing it shall be defrayed by the student, who shall also be punished for disobedience.

9. No student shall be permitted to keep a dog in any room in the University buildings.

10. All boisterous noise in the entries or rooms of the University at any time is strictly prohibited; and every student shall be required to preserve order and decorum in his own room, and shall be responsible for all disorder therein.

11. Discharging of firearms, kindling of bonfires, and disorderly or unauthorized gatherings on the University grounds or elsewhere, are strictly forbidden.

12. If any student present in a disorderly gathering shall disobey an order of the Proctor or of any officer of the University to repair to his room, or after retiring to his room shall return to the gathering, he shall be suspended for such period as the Faculty may determine.

13. All students present in gatherings, or processions which commit any disorder or injury of property, or in any way molest persons, residences, or premises, shall receive such penalties as the gravity of each particular case may require.

14. In all cases of wanton injury or wilful destruction of property of the University, the offender, if discovered, shall pay the cost of restoring it, and be otherwise dealt with as the Faculty may judge proper. In all other cases the damages may be assessed equally on all the students, or, in special cases, upon such portion of them as the Faculty may determine.

15. If any student or students shall steal, destroy, disfigure by painting or otherwise, or trespass upon the property of the University, or of any person in the town or elsewhere, the authorities of the University shall inflict an exemplary punishment on him or them; and any combination to prevent the execution of the civil laws shall be severely punished.

16. It is to be distinctly understood that any student violating the laws of the land shall be liable to the penalties imposed by public law, and the Faculty will not interpose to save him from these penalties.

17. No meeting of the students of the University, or of any class in it, shall be called without the permission of the President or in his absence, of the Dean of the Faculty, or in case of the absence of both the President and Dean, of the next senior officer; and in all cases the request for the meeting shall be in writing specifying the object of the meeting, and signed by the persons making the request, which person shall be responsible for the good order and doings of the class, or of all the classes, at such meeting. No business shall be transacted at such meeting except that for which permission has been obtained.

18. Students remaining in Princeton during a recess or any part of it shall be subject to all the laws respecting orderly conduct, and shall be under the control of the officers of the University.

X. DISCIPLINE AND PENALTIES.

1. Violations of the Rules of the University may be dealt with in the following ways: fines; pensums of extra work; private admonition or rebuke by the President, Dean of the Faculty, or other officers of the University; admonition before the Faculty, or in such other way as the Faculty may direct; disorder marks; letters to parents or guardians; placing on a general or a last probation; suspension from the privileges of the University for a definite or indefinite time; dismissal; expulsion, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified.

2. Private admonition or rebuke may be administered by any officer as he may judge necessary. For improper conduct, irregular attendance, or deficient scholarship, letters may be sent to parents or guardians, as ordered by the Faculty or its Committees, or at the discretion of the Dean of the Faculty. Similarly in more serious cases, a student may be put under suspension; but suspension for a period longer than two weeks, dismissal, and expulsion are to be determined by vote of the Faculty. The repeated commission of offenses whether the same or different in kind, is always to be regarded and treated as an aggravation.

3. The punishment of expulsion shall not be inflicted unless sanctioned by the committee of Trustees on Morals and Discipline. In the meantime the Faculty may dismiss or suspend the offender, and exclude him from all connection with the University.

4. If any student shall refuse to remove from the University premises on being dismissed or suspended by the Faculty, the Faculty is authorized to cause him to be immediately removed, and if necessary to call in the aid of the civil authority.

5. No student suspended, dismissed, or expelled from the University shall be permitted to enter the University buildings, or come on the University grounds without permission of the President or Dean of the Faculty.

6. It may sometimes happen that a student may become an unworthy, corrupting, and dangerous member of the institution, and yet it may not be practicable to establish the fact by formal and specified proof. In such cases it shall be the duty of the Faculty after due admonition to secure the removal of said student in such a manner as it shall judge that his own best interests or the good of the institution may require.